Congratulations to all who received an Outstanding Cambridge Learner Award! Your achievements reflect sustained dedication, hard work, and, yes, talent, too. Well done!

I also want to acknowledge the parents, teachers, and schools who supported you on this journey; their commitment inspires and encourages high achievers. As the proud partner of the Cambridge Assessment International Education, we applaud their efforts in recognising learners' exceptional performances worldwide.

To the awardees, I wish you all the best in making the most of your achievements, and thank you for your inspiration!

Stephen Forbes, Country Director, Bangladesh British Council

Today we celebrate the hard work and perseverance of an exceptional group of students, who have proved themselves to be among the best in both the country and the world in a wide range of subjects. Loving guardians and passionate educators have provided the environments for their learning to flourish. The expert and thorough Cambridge International team, with the diligent and resolute support of the British Council, has provided the platform for their academic achievement.

Armed with deep subject knowledge, advanced communication skills, and developed higher order thinking skills, these students can confidently take the next steps in their educational journey. And beyond that, we can place our trust in them to build a fairer, cleaner, and more prosperous society for future generations.
