

SNAPSHOTS FROM OUR OP-ED PAGES

Here are some insights and analyses from our editorial team and opinion writers on the protests and the subsequent crackdown by the then Awami League regime.

The Daily Star

Why must brute force always be the response to student protests?

The Daily Star

The responsibility lies squarely with the government

The Daily Star

A generation's fight in the shadows of quota

The Daily Star

Why was Abu Sayed shot dead in cold blood?

The Daily Star

Bring those who ordered the excessive use of force to account

The Daily Star

Universities and the govt have failed the students

The Daily Star

State is yet to answer for so many deaths

The Daily Star

Follow SC guidelines for arrests, remand

The Daily Star

Enough!

The Daily Star

Stop this violence before more deaths

The Daily Star

The collective spirit must not be lost

The Daily Star

Mindless killing changed everything

The Daily Star

An entity showing serious cracks

The Daily Star

The prolonged internet shutdown sets a dangerous precedent

The Daily Star

Saluting the spirit of our young people

The Daily Star

How can the rulers erase so much bloodstain?

The Daily Star

How smart is shutting down social media?

The Daily Star

Govt has completely failed to understand the youth

The Daily Star

A new dawn rises on Bangladesh

The Daily Star

Dhaka hospitals need urgent support

The Daily Star

A slogan lost in translation

The Daily Star

VOICES FROM SHAHBAGH

