Israel issues new evacuation orders in Gaza 14 more Palestinians

killed in strikes

AGENCIES

Israeli military strikes killed at least 14 Palestinians across the Gaza Strip yesterday, most of them in the town of Beit Lahiya on the northern edge, medics said, as the army issued new evacuation orders in the south of the tiny enclave.

Medics said eight people had been killed in a series of strikes in Beit Lahiya while four others were killed elsewhere in Gaza City.

An Israeli air strike later killed two people and wounded others in Jabalia, the largest of Gaza's eight historic refugee camps, in the northern Gaza Strip, medics

The Palestinian Civil Emergency Service said its operations in Jabalia, Beit Lahiya and Beit Hanoun had now been halted for nearly four weeks due to Israeli attacks on their teams and to fuel shortages.

- Death toll in enclave rises to 44,502

Yesterday, it said 13 of 27 vehicles in central and southern Gaza Strip were also out of operation due to fuel shortages. It said 88 members of the Civil Emergency Service had been killed, 304 wounded and 21 detained by Israel since the war started.

Israel's military campaign has killed at least 44,502 Palestinians, injured many others, and reduced much of the enclave to rubble, reports Reuters.

Meanwhile, Palestinian movement Hamas and Palestinian President Mahmud Abbas's Fatah party have agreed to create a committee to jointly run post-war Gaza, negotiators from both sides said yesterday.

Under the plan, which needs Abbas's approval, the committee would be composed of 10 to 15 non-partisan figures with authority on matters related to the economy, education, health, humanitarian aid and reconstruction, according to a draft of the proposal seen by AFP.

Syrian Kurds, fleeing their homes on the outskirts of the northern city of Aleppo after they were seized by Islamist-led rebels, arrive with their belongings to Tabaqah in Raqqa, Syria yesterday. ## Global drought carries $300bn annual cost Warns UN

AFP, Riyadh

Drought costs the world more than $300 billion each year, the United Nations warned yesterday in a report published on the second day of international talks on desertification in Saudi Arabia.

Fuelled by "human destruction of the environment", drought is projected to affect 75 percent of the world's population by 2050, the report cautioned.

The warning coincides with a 12-day meeting in Riyadh for the 16th session of the COP16 under the United Nations Convention to Combat Desertification, seeking to protect and restore land and respond to drought amid ongoing climate change.
