Fourth death anniversary of Mizanur Rahman

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Today is the fourth death anniversary of Mizanur Rahman Khan, who was the joint editor of Prothom Alo.

The noted journalist died of cardiac arrest in 2021 at a private hospital in the capital. He was 53. He was buried at the Martyred Intellectuals' Graveyard in Mirpur.

He was one of the few journalists who became known for their expertise on writing about judicial matters.

Before joining Prothom Alo, he worked as a journalist in different media, including Samakal, Jugantar, Manabjamin, Muktakantha, Banglabazar, New Nation, Saptahik Manchitra, and two other dailies published from Barishal – Daily Dakshinanchal and Biplobi Bangladesh.

Marking the death anniversary, Mizanur Rahman Khan Smriti Sangsad and his family have chalked up various programmes.

gave their lives in 2014 at Shapla Chattar, and again in 2018 and 2024, against fascism. "Therefore, do not attempt to divide the Tabligh Jamaat..."

Mufti Sakhawat Hossain Raji said the fascist government had created divisions within the Tabligh Jamaat, and partitioned both Kakrail Mosque and the Tongi Jtama ground.

He alleged that even though fascism has been ousted, its allies still occupy positions in various institutions including the Secretariat, who helped the accused getting the bail.

They announced that one Jtama will be held in Tongi, organised by the ulema.

Similar protests were held at several other locations.

Six bodies

Asked whether BNP would hold any meeting with Jamaat, he said their party was not formally engaged in a simultaneous movement with Jamaat.

While Jamaat was also part of the movement against the Awami League government, like BNP and other parties, their programmes were not the same, he said.

"We hope that in the coming days, we all will be there in the movement to restore democracy, and they (Jamaat) will also join the movement," Nazrul said.

In response to another question, he said BNP Chairperson Khaleda Zia has been receiving proper care at the London clinic.

Tipu was a victim

The register of the hotel showed that Iftekhar and a woman also boarded the same flat along with Tipu.

CCTV footages of the hotel's reception showed that Tipu left the hotel along with the woman at 6:31pm on Thursday. The woman has been absconding since the incident and police are looking for her, said ASP Jasim. Around 8:20pm, Tipu was shot dead by miscreants on the footpath in front of Hotel Sea-Gull adjacent to Cox's Bazar beach.

"The bullet entered Tipu's head from right side and exited from left side. There was no other injury mark..." said Dr Mohammad Sadek, medical officer of Cox's Bazar Sadar Hospital, who conducted the autopsy.
