little to no action taken against perpetrators.

They condemned the inaction against local extortions Rinku, allegedly affiliated with Jibon League, who reportedly incited Lalmatia mob incident.

The protesters carried placards with slogans like "Stop Slut-Shaming!" "Law for Women, But Where is the Law for Men?" and "Ensure Safety or Step Down!"

Addressing the crowd, Adrita Roy, a student of Jahangirnagar University, said, "Two days ago, two female students were attacked by a mob in Lalmatia. Even after the formation of the interim government and changing the home affairs adviser once before, incidents of rape, torture, and abuse of women have only increased. We fought at the frontline during the July movement, but those in power are failing to ensure our safety."

She said, "From our platform, we protested against the ongoing rape and repression, marching towards the home ministry. Yet, the police – who fail to arrest rapists, control mobs, or catch thieves – obstructed our rally. Some of our protesters were injured as a result. We later organised a torch procession, giving the home adviser a 24-hour ultimatum to resign and apologise. He failed to do so. Now, he must be removed."

Lamia Islam, a student from Prime University, accused the home adviser of "inciting the mob" with his remarks. Smoking in public is a civil offence at best. But physical assault is a criminal offence. How can a home adviser justify such a crime?" she asked.

Following the rally, protesters gathered near the National Parliament building, where they set fire to an effigy of the home adviser, reaffirming their demand for his immediate dismissal.

According to HRSS, nine Awami League offices and leaders' homes across the country from February 5 to 7, it added.

The rights body also highlighted the incidents of killings, injuries, and arrests of innocent Bangladeshi at the Indian border.

The HRSS report, prepared based on its own findings and the news published by several media outlets, said at least nine people were killed and 755 people were injured in 104 incidents of political violence, a slight decrease compared to January, when 15 people were killed and 987 people were injured in 29 such incidents.

HRSS said three people were killed in "clashes with law enforcement agencies," including two youths, on February 20 during a joint forces operation in the Chand Udyan area of Mohammadpur in the country.

The report also said at least 10 people were killed and 13 others injured in 17 incidents of mob violence, while 12 accused or convicts died in prison custody.

The report stated that at least 107 women and female children were tortured in February. Of them, 53, including 38 children, were raped.

According to HRSS, it is crucial to improve the overall situation through discussions with political parties, civil society, journalists, and student activists to establish the rule of law, democracy, and human rights in the country.

It is needed to ensure the fundamental and constitutional rights of the people by keeping the law and order under control, it added.
