in a ditch near the under-construction Thanchi-Likri border road, adjacent to the jhum lands of another individual, the statements added.

On information, a police team from Thanchi went to the scene.

OC Nasir Uddin said after recovering Chingma's body from the spot, they sent it to Thanchi Upazila Health Complex. After the preliminary inquest, the body was sent to Bandarban Sadar Hospital for autopsy.

Reliable investigation and inquest reports revealed that the victim's head, part of her face, and eyes were crushed, he said, adding that there were injury marks on various parts of the body.

Bandarban SP Shahidullah Kawser at the press conference said, "The death of Chingma Khyang is being treated with utmost seriousness. We are actively investigating whether there was any criminal motive behind it. Legal proceedings are underway."

He added, "We need cooperation from the local community and media. Anyone with information is requested to contact the police."

Meanwhile, the victim's family sought justice for what they said were the rape and murder of Chingma Khyang.

Various organisations held protests in Bandarban, Rangamati, and Khagrachhari over the killing of the Khyang woman.

Society demonstrated in front of the Bandarban Press Club yesterday.

Earlier, several hundred people gathered at Rajar Math in the district town. From there, they marched through various streets before gathering on the Press Club premises for a rally.

Speakers at the rally included Anti-Corruption Committee President Aung Cha Mong Marma, development worker Lelong Khumi, Donai Pru Nefi of Durbar Network, and Ulichong Marma of Women's Resource Center.

In Dhaka, Parbatya Chattogram Pahari Chhatra Parishad brought out a procession in the Shahbagh area yesterday, protesting the alleged rape and murder of Chingma Khyang.

NRW refers to water that is either physically lost through leaks or theft, or not properly metered and billed after production.

According to its latest annual report, the agency produced 176,511 million litres of water during the 2023-24 FY but failed to generate revenue from 52,962 million litres.

With an average tariff of Tk 19.37 per 1,000 litres, the water lost under NRW resulted in over Tk 100 crore in revenue loss, while it led to acute water supply shortages for many of its approximately 90,000 customers.

Customers and consumer rights activists have welcomed the initiative to install smart meters but urged that the devices be provided to consumers free of charge.

Nazer Hossain, vice-president of Consumers Association of Bangladesh (CAB), said, "Smart meters will prevent overbilling or arbitrary charges that often burden consumers through estimated billing or irregularities."

CWasa executive engineer Rezaul, however, said the smart meters will not be distributed free of cost. Instead, the cost will be recovered from consumers in monthly installments after installation, he added.

Sharing, and joint training to strengthen security frameworks in both nations.

Pianteodsi also stressed the importance of strengthening cooperation on the repatriation of those arriving illegally.

There are about 400,000 Bangladeshis working in Italy. The country wants to recruit more through legal means, while preventing illegal migration.
