

A NOTE ON NUTRITION

CHOWDHURY TASNEEM HASIN
 Chief Clinical Dietician and HOD, Dietetics and Nutrition Department, United Hospital. She is also the AGS of the Association of Nutritionist and Dietician for Social Service (ANDSS).

WHEN DRINKING WATER IS NOT ENOUGH
5 secrets to summer hydration

In this hot and humid weather, maintaining proper hydration and energy levels is vital for overall health and well-being. Drinking a sufficient amount of water during summer can be challenging; therefore, it is important to adopt beneficial habits that help us stay hydrated throughout the season.

Here are some expert-backed ways to navigate summer with ease, ensuring optimal hydration during this period:

CONTINUED TO PAGE 11

