

As the spirit of sacrifice and togetherness fills the air this Eid, The Daily Star is delighted to bring you a special offering of its own – the inaugural edition of our brand-new magazine Spotlight, by Star Showbiz. This 80-page special is a labour of love, woven with the threads of culture and entertainment that enrich our lives, offering a moment of respite and joy amidst the festivities.

For years, Star Showbiz within The Daily Star has strived to keep you informed and entertained with the latest happenings in the world of cinema, music, television, and beyond. This magazine is a natural evolution of that commitment, a deeper dive into the stories, the personalities, and the artistry that captivate us. Think of it as your curated backstage pass to the glamorous world we often admire from afar.

Launching this special edition right before the auspicious occasion of Eid-ul-Azha feels particularly meaningful. This festival reminds us of the importance of sharing, of celebrating together, and of finding joy in our shared experiences. We hope this magazine becomes a part of your Eid celebrations, something to enjoy with family and friends during this special time.

Eid Mubarak to you and your loved ones. May the occasion bring you peace, happiness, and moments of true connection. Now, turn the page and immerse yourselves in the world of Spotlight.

Happy reading!
