

Razz bhai and I spent five hours daily at the gym. We were completely immersed. We also spent time finalising the look for our characters and rehearsals as well. I believe all efforts will be paid off once the audience gets to see the film.”

Farin was set to star opposite Dev in her next Tollywood film, initially titled Projapoti 2 after her debut in Tollywood.

However, political tensions between countries have stalled the project. “It’s uncertain at the moment,” she admitted. “We’re hopeful things will normalise and we can move forward with it—or maybe something new will come up.”

This Eid-ul-Azha will be unlike any other for Farin. “Usually, I spend time with family and friends, and help with the day’s traditions—cooking, distributing meat, hosting guests. In the afternoon, I might go out with friends. But this year, I’ll be visiting cinemas with my team, promoting the film, and for the first time, I’ll take my family to the theatre to watch my film together. That makes it very special.”

When asked which role has stayed with her the longest, Farin reflected on Ladies & Gentlemen: “The character Sabila Hossain haunted me for a long time. It was such an emotionally intense role that I actually needed therapy to move past it.”

On a lighter note, Farin opened up about her personal thoughts, giving us a glimpse into her personality beyond her professional life. When she was asked to describe herself in three words, she thoughtfully replied, “Honest, hardworking, and a procrastinator.” It’s a candid admission, one that speaks to her authenticity and self-awareness.

As Tasnia Farin steps onto her next chapter, one thing is clear, whether it’s through her acting, her voice, or her screen presence, she continues to break barriers and raise expectations. The only question that remains is: will the box-office collections do Insaaf to her hard work this Eid?
