

‘No one can take law into own hands’

Rizvi reiterates BNP’s stance against mob violence

UNB, Dhaka

Reaffirming their party’s stance against the culture of mob violence, BNP Senior Joint Secretary General Ruhul Kabir Rizvi yesterday said no one has the right to take the law into their own hands.

“The case filed against three Election Commissions will proceed according to the law. But no one has the right to take the law into their own hands,” he said.

The BNP leader made the remarks while talking to reporters after paying homage to party founder Ziaur Rahman by placing a wreath at his grave, along with the leaders of BNP’s newly formed Brahmanbaria district unit committee.

He said BNP has filed a case against those who destroyed democracy and the electoral system, conducted votes at night and held a dummy election without

State-appointed lawyers must be capable, independent

Says Toby Cadman

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Toby Cadman, special adviser to the chief prosecutor of the International Crimes Tribunal (ICT), yesterday said judges must ensure any state-appointed defence lawyer has the necessary experience and ability to represent an accused properly and independently.

He made the comment at a media briefing when asked about criticism over the appointment of Advocate Aminul Ghani Titto as state defence counsel for ousted Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina in a contempt of court case.

He clarified that appointing a state defence lawyer is the court’s responsibility, not the prosecution’s.

The controversy began after Advocate Aminul was appointed on June 19

COX’S BAZAR SEA BEACH Recent drownings raise concern

Expose gaps in safety measures

Lifeguards in rescue operation at the beach recently.

MOKAMMEL SHUYO, Cox’s Bazar

In a shocking video that went viral recently, a tourist was seen struggling against strong waves to save his son from drowning in the sea in front of a beach resort in the Kolatoli area of Cox’s Bazar.

A jet-ski operator attempted several times to rescue them but failed. About five minutes later, lifeguards from the Sea Safe Lifeguard Project, stationed at a nearby watchtower, managed to pull them out in critical condition and rushed them to Cox’s Bazar Sadar Hospital, located about three kilometres away.

Both of them -- Shahinur Rahman,

60, and his son Sifat, 20 -- were declared dead on arrival by doctors.

Intiaz Ahmed, manager of the Sea Safe Lifeguard Project under the Centre for Injury Prevention and Research, Bangladesh (CIPRB), said, “We need equipment like jet-skis and beach bikes to reach drowning spots quickly. In this case, it took five minutes to reach the victims, and every second counts in such an emergency scenario. There’s also no medical centre along the beach to provide immediate first aid.”

The jet-ski operator failed to save the victims due to strong waves, instability, and a lack of rescue training.

The incident was not an isolated

Govt to amend CrPC to protect rights during arrest

Says law adviser

UNB, Dhaka

Law Adviser Asif Nazrul yesterday said the government has prepared a draft amendment to the Code of Criminal Procedure (CrPC) 1898, aiming to ensure stronger safeguarding measures during arrests and interrogations.

“We have drafted an amendment to the CrPC to ensure a rights-based approach and strict safeguarding measures during arrest and interrogation. It’ll be cleared very soon,” he said while addressing a workshop in the capital.

The Commonwealth Secretariat in partnership with youth and sports ministry and foreign ministry organised the 2-day workshop titled “Commonwealth Charter Youth Workshop Bangladesh-2025”.

The law adviser said his ministry has undertaken a bold reform drive aligned with the Commonwealth Charter’s core values.

Citing some reform examples, he also said the government has amended the code of civil procedure to make justice faster, cheaper, and more accessible.

BRAHMANBAZAR A 200-year-old hub for jackfruit trade

MINTU DESHWARA, Moulvibazar

Even before dawn breaks in mid-summer, the Brahmanbazar wholesale market in Kulaura upazila bursts into life. Buyers and sellers crowd the area, haggling over the price of ripe jackfruit, their sweet aroma filling the air.

According to local traders, Brahmanbazar is one of the largest jackfruit wholesale markets in the country. Located along the Moulvibazar-Kulaura road, the market operates every Monday and Thursday during the season -- continuing a tradition nearly 200 years old.

During a recent visit, this correspondent saw thousands of ripe jackfruits stacked along both sides of the road. Vehicles steadily brought in more from nearby villages.

“With the fruit just starting to ripen, the market is still gaining momentum and will continue for several weeks,” said Shahinur Rahman, a resident.

Kadar Ali, a farmer from Langla Khas Notun Basti, brought 40 jackfruits from his own trees, hoping to earn Tk 4,000. Jahur Ali from Gurabhoi brought 100 jackfruits. “I purchased the rights to several jackfruit trees in advance, but the yield has been lower than expected this year. Still, I’m hopeful for a fair deal.”

To locals, Brahmanbazar is more than a marketplace -- it’s a cultural hub. “The biggest crowds gather on Mondays and Thursdays, when wholesalers from Sunamganj, Sylhet, and Moulvibazar arrive,” said Shahjahan Mia.
