

26 October 2025

Creating Global Citizens with Islamic Values

Islamic University of Technology (IUT)
A Subsidiary Organ of Organization of Islamic Cooperation (OIC)

CHIEF ADVISER
GOVERNMENT OF THE PEOPLE'S REPUBLIC OF BANGLADESH

10 Kartik 1432
26 October 2025

On the momentous occasion of the 37th Convocation of the Islamic University of Technology (IUT), I convey my heartfelt congratulations to the graduating students, to their proud parents and guardians, and to the esteemed faculty and staff.

As a distinguished subsidiary organ of the Organization of Islamic Cooperation (OIC), the IUT has remained steadfast in its noble mission of empowering the youth of the Ummah through knowledge, innovation, and moral excellence. Today's convocation marks the culmination of that enduring commitment.

IUT stands as a shining emblem of Joint Islamic Action and Islamic Solidarity—an institution that embodies our collective aspiration for intellectual and technological advancement across the Muslim world. As the host country, Bangladesh remains deeply devoted to nurturing this beacon of excellence, ensuring it receives every moral, material, and intellectual support necessary for its continued growth and distinction.

We convene at a defining juncture in human history, when the digital age is redefining how we live, work, and connect—unveiling vast new frontiers of opportunity. In harmony with this forward march of progress, the Interim Government is resolutely committed to harnessing the potential of science, technology, and innovation in building a modern, knowledge-based nation.

This graduating cohort now steps onto the global stage. Fortified by Islamic values and the professional excellence instilled at IUT, these graduates are poised to become the architects of the future. I am confident that they will remain lifelong learners and innovators, applying their talents for the advancement of Bangladesh, the Muslim Ummah, and all humanity.

I wish the 37th Convocation of IUT resounding success and extend my sincerest prayers for the graduates' future.

Professor Muhammad Yunus

IUT at A Glance

The Islamic University of Technology (IUT), a subsidiary organ of the OIC, unites 57 member states across the world. Established in 1981, IUT is Bangladesh's first international university, offering accredited engineering, technology, and business programmes recognized by the Washington Accord.

With students from 24 OIC countries, IUT maintains a 14:1 student-teacher ratio, over 90% employability, and strong collaboration with industry and academia. Ranked in the QS World University Rankings, it provides a diverse, research-driven environment supported by scholarships and modern facilities.

Graduating Students' Statistics 2025

Graduating Students Academic Year 2023-2024	MPE ME+IPE	EEE	CSE CSE+SWE	Postgraduate	International
522	79	121	127	33	49
	CEE	TVE	BTM	Undergraduate	Bangladeshi
	104	37	54	489	473
				Male 378	144 Female

Graduate Alumni

36 Member States 8357 Graduate Alumni 90% Employability

visit: www.iutoic-dhaka.edu

Secretary General
Organization of Islamic Cooperation (OIC)
Chancellor
Islamic University of Technology (IUT)

On the occasion of the 37th Convocation of IUT, 2025, it is with great pleasure and deep pride that I extend my heartfelt congratulations to all graduates of the Islamic University of Technology (IUT). This ceremony is not merely a celebration of academic success; it represents the culmination of years of perseverance, intellectual curiosity, and dedication to excellence.

As the higher education arm of the OIC, IUT has remained steadfast in its mission to nurture talent and empower young men and women across our Member States. Guided by the principles of Islamic solidarity, innovation, and service to humanity, the University continues to equip its graduates with the knowledge, skills, and values required to contribute meaningfully to their societies and to the wider world.

Today's graduates stand at the threshold of a world that is evolving rapidly—marked by technological transformation, environmental challenges, and the need for more inclusive and sustainable development. Your education at IUT has not only prepared you with technical expertise but has also instilled in you the virtues of integrity, compassion, and social responsibility. I encourage you to apply these values as you face the complex challenges of our time and to serve as catalysts for progress, peace, and cooperation within and beyond your communities.

The OIC takes immense pride in IUT as one of its flagship institutions—a shining example of Joint Islamic Action and a testament to our collective vision of advancing education and human resource development across the Muslim world. I express my sincere appreciation to the Government of the People's Republic of Bangladesh for its unwavering support in enabling IUT to fulfill its noble mission. I also commend the dedication of the University's leadership, faculty, and staff whose tireless efforts have shaped the future leaders we celebrate today.

To the graduates, I say: this is both an ending and a beginning. As you step forward into new horizons—whether in advanced study, research, or professional life—remain lifelong learners and embrace innovation, empathy, and ethical leadership. Remember that your achievements carry the hopes of your families, your nations, and the wider Ummah.

On behalf of the Organization of Islamic Cooperation, I offer my warmest congratulations once again to the graduating class of 2025. May your journey ahead be defined by purpose, perseverance, and the pursuit of excellence, and may you always be guided by the values that lie at the heart of our faith and our shared humanity.

I wish you every success in your future endeavours.

Hissein Ibrahim Taha
Secretary General of the OIC
Chancellor of the Islamic University of Technology (IUT)

ADVISER FOR FOREIGN AFFAIRS
Government of the People's Republic of Bangladesh Dhaka

It is a privilege to convey my sincere greetings and felicitations on the occasion of the 37th Convocation of the Islamic University of Technology (IUT). I extend my heartfelt congratulations to the graduating students for their academic achievements. This milestone marks not only personal success but also the beginning of your responsibilities as future leaders, professionals, and contributors to your nations and to the wider Muslim Ummah.

At a time when humanitarian crises, especially in regions such as Palestine, continue to remind us of the need for justice, peace, and solidarity, your role becomes ever more vital. As graduates of a distinguished institution under the Organisation of Islamic Cooperation, you are uniquely positioned to apply your skills in advancing technology, innovation, and ethical leadership for the collective good.

IUT has emerged as a symbol of unity, diversity, and excellence in technical education. I commend its continued efforts to foster collaboration among OIC member states and build human capital that addresses the pressing challenges of our time.

May the Almighty guide the graduates in their pursuits and grant continued success to IUT in its mission to serve the humankind through knowledge, integrity, and service.

(Md. Touhid Hossain)

ADVISER,
MINISTRY OF EDUCATION
Government of the People's Republic of Bangladesh Dhaka

It is indeed a great honour and pleasure to extend my heartfelt felicitations to all graduating students of the Islamic University of Technology (IUT) on the auspicious occasion of its 37th Convocation Ceremony. This is a moment of great pride—not only for the graduates and their families, but also for the faculty, administration, and all who have contributed to shaping the future of this esteemed institution.

IUT stands as a distinguished symbol of unity, excellence, and shared progress within the Organization of Islamic Cooperation (OIC). Since its inception, the University has played a vital role in developing technically proficient and ethically grounded professionals who are capable of addressing global challenges with innovation and compassion. Bangladesh takes immense pride in hosting this unique centre of learning that continues to foster international collaboration, research excellence, and leadership among the youth of the Muslim Ummah.

Dear Graduates, you are stepping into a dynamic world undergoing transformation driven by technology, climate change, and the pursuit of sustainable development. As engineers and professionals educated under the values of Islam and guided by a global vision, you are entrusted with the noble task of applying your knowledge for the welfare of humanity. Let your work reflect integrity, curiosity, and a sense of service. Always remember that true success lies not only in personal achievement but in your ability to uplift communities and protect our planet.

The Government of Bangladesh remains deeply committed to advancing education and innovation as the foundation of national and regional progress. Under the leadership of the Honourable Chief Adviser, Dr. Muhammad Yunus, we are striving to build a society rooted in integrity, inclusiveness, and creativity. In this journey, institutions like IUT play an indispensable role in preparing the next generation of thinkers, innovators, and changemakers.

As you embark upon your professional careers, I urge you to be visionary in thought, ethical in conduct, and compassionate in action. Continue to learn, adapt, and collaborate—across disciplines and borders—for the collective good of the Ummah and humanity.

May Almighty Allah bless you with wisdom, perseverance, and humility in all your future endeavours. May He grant continued progress and success to the Islamic University of Technology in its noble mission of empowering minds and transforming societies.

Professor Dr. Chowdhury Rafiqul Ahsan
Education Adviser
Ministry of Education
Government of the People's Republic of Bangladesh

Chairman, Governing Board
Islamic University of Technology (IUT)

In the name of God most gracious most merciful

Excellences, honored guests, graduates, families and relatives of graduates, all respected attendees

I feel extremely happy and privileged to address you at the 37th Convocation of the Islamic University of Technology (IUT), which is a subsidiary organ of the Organisation of Islamic Cooperation (OIC). On this occasion, we commemorate not only your glorious academic success but also the enduring contribution of IUT, which was established for the development of the Ummah through engineering and technological education. For decades, IUT has opened up the gates of its vibrant and picturesque campus, rich with cultural diversity and expectation for new thoughts, for students from 57 OIC member states.

Your time at this international university—of late study nights, collaboration, and support for each other—demonstrates your efforts and the close-knit community that distinguishes this institution. Today, I wish to extend special thanks to the teaching faculties, administrative staff, operational teams and family members for supporting you in all aspects with generosity; their support and encouragement have been critical for your success in school.

IUT has consistently enhanced its academic and research capabilities guided by the Governing Board. IUT always aims to advance international cooperation and raise talent. I am particularly proud of the advances that have been achieved by our students at national and regional levels and of the increasing volume of study by our faculty and researchers in new fields such as sustainable energy, civil infrastructure, technology management, and AI-based solutions. These achievements attest to IUT's commitment towards making a significant contribution to the development imperatives of the Ummah and beyond.

As you enter the second half of your lives, do not forget that education is not merely a terminal but a launching pad. The knowledge, discipline, and compassion that you have acquired here will enable you to design responsibly, bring human beings closer, and do good for your communities with integrity and love.

On behalf of the Governing Board, faculty, and staff of IUT, I extend warm congratulations and best wishes on your success. Your triumphs inspire others, making your families, your countries, and this university proud, which will always be your academic home and alma mater.

H.E. Prof. Dr. Nasser M. Al-Aqeel
Chairman, Governing Board
Islamic University of Technology (IUT)
A subsidiary organ of OIC

Special Guest
Assistant Secretary General
Science and Technology
Organization of Islamic Cooperation (OIC)

It is a great pleasure and honour for me to convey my heartfelt congratulations to all the graduating students on the momentous occasion of the 37th Convocation of the Islamic University of Technology (IUT). This day marks the culmination of years of your perseverance, dedication and hard work. You have not only earned degrees but also prepared yourselves to serve your communities, nations and the Ummah with integrity and excellence.

I also extend my warm appreciation to the parents and families of the graduates. Your sacrifices, encouragement, and prayers have been instrumental in shaping their success. Today's celebration is as much yours as it is theirs.

To the Vice-Chancellor, faculty, and staff of IUT, I express my sincere gratitude for your continued dedication to academic excellence, innovation, and service to the OIC Member States. Through your tireless efforts, IUT has established itself as a centre of excellence in engineering, technology, and applied sciences—embodiment of the OIC's vision for promoting science, technology, and innovation across the Muslim world.

As our graduates step into the professional world, I urge them to be ambassadors of knowledge, ethics, and collaboration. In an era defined by rapid technological change, the challenges facing humanity require not only technical expertise but also moral courage, compassion, and a spirit of cooperation. I am confident that they will carry forward these values and contribute meaningfully to sustainable development and global progress.

The OIC, through its Science, Technology and Innovation Agenda 2026, remains committed to empowering youth, fostering innovation, and strengthening institutions like IUT that prepare the next generation of scientists, engineers, and innovators of the Ummah.

I commend IUT for its remarkable achievements and express my confidence and hope that, under its capable leadership, the University will continue to serve as a beacon of excellence and a source of pride for all OIC Member States.

Congratulations once again to the graduating Class of 2025. May your journey ahead be filled with purpose, achievement, and success.

Amb Aftab Ahmad Khokher,
Assistant Secretary General (Science and Technology),
Organization of Islamic Cooperation (OIC)

NUS
National University of Singapore

Convocation Speaker
Former Professor,
Department of Mechanical Engineering,
National University of Singapore (NUS)

It is a great honor to join you on this auspicious occasion, the 37th Convocation of the Islamic University of Technology (IUT). Today, you stand at a proud milestone in your life's journey. Years of effort, sacrifice, and faith have brought you to this moment of achievement. You are now prepared to embark on a new chapter filled with challenges, opportunities, and the responsibility to serve humanity.

As graduates of IUT, an institution under the Organization of Islamic Cooperation (OIC), you carry a legacy that extends far beyond borders. You are part of a global community bound by shared values of knowledge, unity, and service. Islam places great emphasis on seeking knowledge. The very first revelation to our beloved Prophet Muhammad (peace be upon him) began with the word "Iqra" meaning "Read." This divine command reminds us that learning is not merely for personal gain but for the betterment of society and the upliftment of the ummah.

In an era marked by rapid technological change and complex global challenges, your education has equipped you with both technical competence and moral clarity. The true measure of your success will not lie only in what you achieve for yourself, but in how your knowledge and skills benefit others, and how you uphold justice, compassion, and integrity in all that you do.

Be innovators, but also be servants of humanity. Let your work reflect excellence (Ihsan), your decisions reflect honesty (amanah), and your conduct reflect humility (tawadu'). Carry forward the vision of IUT and the OIC to create a world where knowledge is guided by ethics and progress is rooted in faith.

May Allah guide you in every step of your journey, grant you wisdom in your choices, and bless you with the strength to contribute meaningfully to your nations and to the ummah at large.

Congratulations once again on your achievements. The future is now in your hands. Serve with sincerity, lead with integrity, and let your faith be your compass.

Prof. Dr. Mustafizur Rahman
Former Professor, Department of Mechanical Engineering
National University of Singapore (NUS)

Vice Chancellor
Islamic University of Technology (IUT)

It is with profound pleasure that I extend my heartfelt congratulations to all associated with the 37th Convocation of the Islamic University of Technology (IUT). On this momentous occasion, I convey my warmest congratulations to our graduating students for their dedication, perseverance, and remarkable achievements, which have culminated in this significant milestone of their academic journey.

At IUT, we pursue excellence in education, research, and innovation through the unwavering commitment of our distinguished faculty and staff, who foster an environment that inspires intellectual curiosity, creativity, and lifelong learning. Our vision is to nurture competent professionals who are not only technically proficient but also guided by moral integrity and a deep sense of responsibility toward humanity.

This commitment to academic rigor is reflected in our sustained implementation of Outcome-Based Education (OBE) at IUT, a testimony to our dedication to continuous improvement and global academic alignment. Through OBE, our curricula are regularly reviewed and refined to meet the evolving needs of modern industries and emerging technologies, ensuring that our graduates remain fully equipped to thrive in an increasingly dynamic world.

In recent years, IUT has achieved notable progress in its academic standing, research output, and international recognition, marked by its inclusion in the QS World University Rankings 2026 within the 1201–1400 global band, placing it among the top two engineering and technology-specialized universities in Bangladesh and within the 421–430 range in Asia. This milestone reaffirms our collective resolve to advance the frontiers of knowledge and contribute meaningfully to the shared development goals of the OIC Member States.

As our graduates embark on new professional and personal journeys, I urge them to uphold the values of diligence, integrity, and excellence that define their time at IUT. May they continue to bring honor to their alma mater and serve as ambassadors of unity, innovation, and progress for the Ummah.

On this auspicious occasion, we express our sincere gratitude to Almighty Allah (SWT) for His infinite mercy and guidance. May He continue to bless IUT with enduring success and enable us to serve the noble cause of education and the advancement of the Muslim world.

Prof. Dr. Mohammad Rafiqul Islam
Vice Chancellor, IUT

Congratulations to All the Graduating Students in the Academic Year 2023-2024 of the Islamic University of Technology (IUT) on the Occasion of the 37th Convocation 2025

AB Bank