Undisciplined and demotivated cops to face music

Home adviser, IGP give directives ahead of nat'l polls

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Months after the July uprising, police officials who are still demotivated, show indiscipline, disobey orders, or display disrespect to the government and the state will face strict administrative and legal action.

It has also been instructed to keep the demotivated officers away from operational duties.

The decisions came from a special crime review meeting at the Police Headquarters yesterday.

Addressing the meeting, Home Adviser Lt Gen (ret'd) Jahangir Alam Chowdhury urged senior police officials to strengthen professionalism, discipline, and team spirit among their subordinates ahead of the upcoming national election.

Inspector General of Police Baharul Alam, who chaired the meeting, echoed the adviser's directive and said demotivated officers should not be assigned operational duties.

Range DIGs, metropolitan police commissioners, and superintendents of police across the country attended the meeting in person and virtually.

At the meeting, Additional IGP (Crime and Operations) Khondker Rafiqul Islam presented an overview of the Three major political parties yesterday opined that the upcoming national election must be internationally recognised and ensure a peaceful transfer of power.

They said if the polls are not free and fair, a fresh vote should be held.

The remarks came at a roundtable titled “Inclusive and Fair National Parliament Election: Expectations of Civil Society from Political Parties,” held at the Prothom Alo office in Dhaka. The event was jointly organised by ActionAid Bangladesh and Prothom Alo.

Attending the discussion, BNP Standing Committee member Salahuddin Ahmed said people are finally getting the chance to vote freely after many years. “This time, voters themselves will guard the election. Law enforcement will play a secondary role,” he said.

“We have always echoed the sentiment that the election should be credible and recognised globally,” he said.

The BNP leader further said his party would play its part to ensure a fair and transparent election.

He also stressed that the BNP had long pledged to form a national government through consensus if fascism is dismantled and the opposition alliance wins the election.

Salahuddin explained that such a government

‘Nothing short of a miracle’

Navid returns home after 36 surgeries and 97 days in hospital following Milestone jet crash

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

After a long and miraculous recovery following at least 36 surgeries and 22 days in the intensive care unit, 13-year-old student Navid Nawaz, who was injured in the jet crash at Milestone School and College in Uttara, has finally returned home.

Navid, a class 7 student, was discharged from the National Institute of Burn and Plastic Surgery yesterday, 97 days after the tragic incident on July 21.

Dr Maruful Islam, joint director of the burn institute, said Navid sustained 45 percent burns in the devastating crash. He was transferred from the Combined Military Hospital (CMH) to the burn institute on July 22 as his condition deteriorated.

“His condition was extremely critical. We had to tell his family twice to be mentally prepared for the worst,” said Dr Maruful.

“But we did not give up.”

Navid spent 22 days in the Intensive Care Unit, including 10 days on life support, followed by 35 days in the High Dependency Unit and another 40 days in a cabin before finally being declared fit to go home, the hospital sources said.

Over the course of his treatment, Navid underwent 36 surgeries and eight skin grafts, which doctors say is the highest among all the burn victims from that incident.

Professor Nasir Uddin, director of the burn institute, recalled the day Navid was admitted.

“He kept pleading, ‘Please save me, will I survive?’ His lungs had filled with fluid due to severe burns, so he had to be placed on life support in a prone position, which was extremely challenging. Seeing him recover and return home smiling is nothing short of a miracle,” he said.

Five other burn victims from the same crash are still being treated at the institute, but are said to be in stable condition. Doctors expect them to be discharged within a week.

Navid's father, Mizanur Rahman, expressed deep gratitude to the medical team and requested prayers from the nation for his son's continued recovery and for all those affected by the tragedy.

At least 35 people, mostly students, were killed, and over 150 others were injured after an air force training jet crashed at the school.
