

A DAY OF REFLECTION

The Daily Star yesterday kicked off its two-day 35th anniversary celebrations, with members of parliament, high-profile politicians, dignitaries, diplomats, and others in attendance. Alongside a programme in the newly inaugurated hall on the building's eighth floor, the event also featured an exhibition on the lower floors, showcasing the scars left behind by the attack on the institution on the night of December 18, 2025.

PHOTOS: STAR

