

Brazil begin knockout journey

Brazil and Japan meet in one of the most intriguing Round of 32 clashes of the FIFA World Cup in Houston tonight. Five-time champions Brazil, who topped Group C, began their Hexa Mission with a 1-1 draw against Morocco before bouncing back with emphatic 3-0 victories over Haiti and Scotland. Japan, meanwhile, finished second in Group F after drawing with the Netherlands and Sweden before thumping Tunisia 4-0.

- Brazil have reached the knockout stage at every World Cup since 1982.

Vinicius Junior has been in sensational form, scoring four goals in the group stage, including a match-winning brace against Scotland.

Brazil have been eliminated in four of their last six World Cup knockout matches — more often than in their previous 17 combined. Each of those four eliminations came against European opposition.

Japan have conceded nine goals to Neymar in just five appearances against Brazil, including a four-goal haul in a 2014 friendly and decisive strikes in 2017 and 2022.
- Japan stunned Brazil 3-2 in an international friendly in October 2025. Paulo Henrique and Gabriel Martinelli gave Brazil an early lead before Takumi Minamino, Keito Nakamura and Ayase Ueda inspired a remarkable second-half comeback.

Japan have won just one of their 14 meetings with Brazil, drawing twice and losing the other 11.

Japan have never won a men's World Cup knockout match, suffering Round of 16 exits in 2002, 2010, 2018 and 2022, while failing to progress beyond the group stage at every other tournament since 1998.

Stokes to retire from international cricket

AFP, Nottingham

Ben Stokes has announced his retirement as England Test captain and from international cricket, the England and Wales Cricket Board said in a statement issued Sunday.

Stokes will end his England career following the conclusion of the ongoing third Test against New Zealand in Nottingham

As news spread of the 35-year-old all-rounder's decision, he received a standing ovation from the crowd at Trent Bridge and there were more cheers shortly afterwards when he dismissed New Zealand's Zak Foulkes on the fourth day of the third and deciding Test of a three-match series.

Sunday's announcement came after Stokes returned to England duty at Trent Bridge after being omitted from a 253-run defeat in the second Test at the Oval for breaking a midnight curfew, alongside teammate Gus Atkinson, while celebrating at a London nightclub following the first-Test win over New Zealand.

"Ben Stokes leaves the international game as one of England's greatest ever cricketers and one of the defining figures of his generation," said ECB chairman Richard Thompson.

Netherlands, Morocco face off in mouthwatering clash

STAR SPORTS DESK

The Netherlands and Morocco will face off in a compelling FIFA World Cup Round of 32 clash in Monterrey tomorrow, with kickoff scheduled for 7:00 am Bangladesh time. Both sides topped their respective groups with seven points and enter the knockout stage full of confidence after impressive group-stage campaigns.

The Dutch finished first in Group F after opening with a 2-2 draw against Japan before recording convincing victories over Sweden (5-1) and Tunisia (3-1). Ronald Koeman's men have scored 10 goals in three matches, making them one of the tournament's most potent attacking teams and genuine contenders for the title.

Despite their rich footballing history, the Netherlands are still chasing a first World Cup crown. They finished runners-up in 1974, 1978 and 2010, while also claiming third place in 2014 and fourth in 1998.

At Qatar 2022, they reached the quarterfinals. Victory over Morocco would book a Round of 16 meeting with either South Africa or Canada.

Morocco also collected seven points, finishing second in Group C behind Brazil only on goal difference. The Atlas Lions place in the knockout rounds.

Mohamed Ouahbi's side have again shown they are capable of competing with the world's best, building on the momentum of their historic run to the semifinals in Qatar four years ago. Morocco became the first African nation to reach the last four of a World Cup in 2022, eliminating Portugal in the quarterfinals before eventually finishing fourth.

The teams have met three times previously, with the Netherlands holding the edge. Their only World Cup encounter came during the group stage in the United States in 1994, when the Dutch claimed a 2-1 victory.

With both teams enjoying strong form and dreaming of another deep World Cup run, the Monterrey showdown promises to be one of the standout ties of the Round of 32.

Eyes on Wimbledon title for Sinner, Sabalenka

REUTERS, London

Defending champion Jannik Sinner begins his Wimbledon campaign on Monday seeking a fifth Grand Slam title, while women's world number one Aryna Sabalenka looks to claim her first major crown of 2026 and Novak Djokovic resumes his pursuit of a record-breaking 25th Grand Slam.

With two-time Wimbledon champion Carlos Alcaraz absent, Sinner enters the tournament as the clear favourite. The Italian skipped all grass-court warm-up events after his disappointing French Open exit, where he cramped in hot conditions and squandered a winning position in the second round.

Sabalenka arrives in London hoping to end a frustrating run at Grand Slams. Despite holding the world number one ranking since late 2024, the Belarusian has won only one major in the past 18 months despite reaching four finals. Djokovic, meanwhile, believes Wimbledon presents his best opportunity to surpass Margaret Court's record of 24 major titles. The 39-year-old Serb has won seven Wimbledon crowns and has reached two finals and a semi-final since his most recent triumph in 2022.

Following his five-set French Open defeat to Joao Fonseca, Djokovic said grass suits him better at this stage of his career.

TIGERS IN DISARRAY

Bangladesh opener Shadman islam (R) leaves the pitch with his head bowed as Zimbabwe players celebrate his dismissal during the opening session of the first day of the one-off Test at the Harare Sports Club yesterday. Put in to bat, Bangladesh were shot out for 140 in their first innings before the hosts ended the day at 136 for one, with Khaled Ahmed taking the only wicket.
